Announcing the 2025 YPS Grant Recipients: 23 Projects to Transform Knowledge into Impact

Twenty three projects were selected for funding from an exceptionally competitive pool of proposals. This year, YPS will award more than $2 million to projects representing all divisions of the Faculty of Arts and Sciences, as well as eight of Yale's professional schools. Since 2022, YPS has awarded more than $7 million to 89 projects that are addressing global challenges too complex to be tackled within a single discipline. Read more.

Yale Innovation Summit Climate Catalyst Keynote: Four Visionaries, One Future, Zero Excuses

Yale Ventures is pleased to announce a dynamic and visionary keynote session for the Climate Track at the Yale Innovation Summit, taking place May 28–29, 2025. The Climate Catalyst Keynote Panel will bring together four trailblazers—a scientist, investor, entrepreneur, and CEO—who are shaping a resilient future in the face of the climate crisis.

Tackling Climate Change at All Scales: Reflecting on the EMBO Kickstart Meeting

Climate change is not just a planetary-scale issue, but also a cellular-scale one. In a recent cross-disciplinary European Molecular Biology Organization (EMBO) meeting, scientists, policy makers, artists, and funders gathered to jumpstart an integrated cell-to-planet discipline and stress the need for new research alliances. Yale Sustainability Showcase Now Available Online

In April, members of the Yale community gathered at Luce Hall for a poster session showcasing some of the ways the university is working to address critical challenges of climate change. The session was part of Yale's annual State of Sustainability and Awards Breakfast, a celebratory gathering that convenes and galvanizes the community to advance climate solutions.
